On September 13, 2016, The Timken Company (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Shelly M. Chadwick, age 44, as Vice President – Finance and Chief Accounting Officer, effective November 1, 2016, replacing J. Ted Mihaila, the Company’s Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller. On September 9, 2016, Mr. Mihaila and the Company agreed that he would remain with the Company until his retirement on December 1, 2016.

Ms. Chadwick joined the Company in 2011 as Assistant Corporate Controller and in 2013 became Controller of the Company’s Process Industries segment. In 2014, she was named Vice President of Treasury with her responsibilities expanded thereafter to include Investor Relations.

In connection with her appointment, Ms. Chadwick and the Company entered into the Company’s standard officer indemnification agreement and a severance agreement (the “Severance Agreement”). The form of officer indemnification agreement was previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on July 31, 2013 as Exhibit 10.2 to the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the form of Severance Agreement was previously filed with the SEC on February 24, 2016 as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K.

As Vice President – Finance and Chief Accounting Officer, Ms. Chadwick will receive an annual base salary and will participate in the Company-wide Annual Performance Award plan and in the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Plan, which provides for long-term incentive grants the value of which is linked directly to the performance of the Company or the price of its common shares. Ms. Chadwick will also be entitled to participate in the Company’s retirement income programs and in its broad-based benefit programs, including health, disability and life insurance programs, and will be entitled to certain perquisites.

Pursuant to the Severance Agreement, in the event Ms. Chadwick’s employment is terminated without “cause” by the Company, Ms. Chadwick will receive, among other benefits, severance equal to 1.0 times the sum of: (a) her annual base salary in effect prior to the termination; and (b) her target annual amount of incentive compensation for the year in which she is terminated. Moreover, if certain events occur, such as a reduction in her responsibilities or termination of her employment without cause following a change in control, Ms. Chadwick will be entitled to receive, among other benefits, a payment in an amount equal to a multiple of 1.5 times the sum of: (a) the greater of (i) her annual base salary in effect prior to the termination or (ii) her annual base salary in effect prior to the change in control; and (b) the greater of (i) her target annual amount of incentive compensation for the year in which her employment is terminated or (ii) her target annual amount of incentive compensation for the year in which the change in control occurs.
